For all Christian faith based applications you must ask your Parish Priest, Church Minister or Faith Leader to complete the verification section at the end of this form before you return this application to Ranelagh School. The application will not be considered as Christian faith based unless verified.

You must also complete a Common Application Form as instructed by your home Local Authority.

The application will not be able to be considered against the oversubscription criteria unless both forms are completed and returned as instructed. This Supplementary Information Form must be returned direct to Ranelagh School, ideally at the same time as the CAF. Applications received without a Supplementary Information Form will be placed in category E of the oversubscription criteria.
